

Our Valley Our Vision

Stronger Together

This is our valley and our vision. What do we envision for our children and grandchildren in the coming decades? What do we imagine for recreation, downtown, agriculture, roads, and housing? Plan now to join the conversation. Afterall, we're stronger together!

Public Brainstorming Workshop

All are welcome. Roll up your sleeves and share a fun, interactive evening with your neighbors imagining the future of our valley. Help develop a long-range community vision ahead of future planning efforts.

The Our Valley Our Vision process is a once in-a-generation opportunity to explore growth-related issues and to think together about our future. Let's decide what we want and how to get there!

What do we envision for our children and grandchildren?
Let's have a conversation!
